

Coolidge Men Want Al Smith for 1928 Rival

They're Confident He Will Lead Democrats.

ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Al Smith, N. Y., Aug. 29.—[Special.] Coolidge against Al Smith in 1928.

Who knows? But that's the way the Coolidge enthusiasts are visualizing the presidential contest two years hence—and hoping mightily that it will turn out thus, for Smith they judge the strongest man in the Democratic party and yet the easiest to beat.

First, as to Coolidge. The friends and admirers of the President freely admit they have no more idea than the average man in the street whether he will seek another term and they hazard no opinion that he himself has a clearer notion. He alone will decide the question and he will do so on Jan. 1, 1928, in the light of his estimate of the chances of reelection.

All Depends on Outlook.

It is at this time anywhere nearly as far as he is now, if there has been a serious check to the country's prosperity, the President, his friends and advisers will declare himself an opponent to another four years in the White House.

Now, as to Al Smith. The calculations of the Coolidge crowd are founded on hopes and partly on information or what they easily convinced themselves is information. They have it, confidentially, from the higher up among the Jeffersonians that Al Smith is to be a Democratic candidate.

Reasons Are Numerous.

The reasons therefore, it appears, are numerous, but chiefly two. In the first place, the Smith movement has attained prodigious proportions. The party in the east is solid for the New York governor. As first and second choice he has great support in the middle west and he is now reaching out with fair promises of success for support in parts of the south and the west.

It is going to be pretty difficult to prevent the nomination of Smith, even if his opponents admit. But what has caused the Coolidge leaders to prick up their ears is the word from anti-Smith Democrats that they want to prevent it.

Means Battle of '24 Over Again.

If they don't, say these Jeffersonians, the Madison Square Garden battle of 1924 will be reenacted in 1928. The Jeffersonians will fight each other to a standstill and leave the party hamstringed in the election as they did two years ago. Not till the party gets this row out of its system can it hope to get a new start, runs this line of reasoning.

Moreover, the Roman Catholic Democrats who preponderate in the party in the north are becoming more and more belligerent. They are proclaiming that if such an outstanding leader as Smith is to be denied the presidential nomination merely or chiefly because he is a Roman Catholic it is time Roman Catholics to quit the party. There are Protestant dry who are saying: "Let Smith have it and get it over with. When he has been licked by the Catholic Democrats will come to reason."

Think It Would Split Party.

The Coolidge partisans profess to believe that all this is true, for they are sure the nomination of Smith against Coolidge would insure the reelection of the President. That such as the New York governor is a Roman Catholic, as well as wringing wet, his selection for the Democratic candidate, new Republicans think, would split the Democratic party and permit the O. G. P. to drive its wedge still farther into the dry, anti-Catholic solid south.

JEWELER WOMAN DAZED IN TAXICAB PUZZLES POLICE

Oak Park police were puzzled last night over what to do with a woman who said she is Marguerite Chapelle, protégée of Henry Crocker, San Francisco banker. The woman, about 30 years of age, was taken to the police station by John Suttner, a taxicab driver, when she was unable to tell where she wanted to go after hailing his cab.

The woman said she lives at Burlington, Cal., and seemed to have some knowledge of San Francisco.

FEAR KIDNAPING AS POLICE START HUNT FOR WIFE

Detective bureau police began an investigation last night of the disappearance of Mrs. Julia Novak, 33 years old, 235 West 21st place, whom neighbors feared had been kidnapped by a former sweetheart, who, they said, was William Kelsynski, 33 years old.

The latter, they said, recently returned from Michigan where he went after divorcing his wife after she is said to have thrown acid into the face of the Novak woman. Mrs. Novak, according to the story told by police, went to answer her door bell last night, and immediately after sounds of a struggle were heard. Running out, the neighbors declared they found the door open and no signs of Mrs. Novak.

COLORED MAN SHOT TO DEATH.

John H. Wright, colored, 3863 Cottage Grove avenue, was shot and killed last night by Benjamin Beay, colored, in a tailor shop at 4018 Cottage Grove avenue. Beay was caught several hours later by policemen wiring, McLaughlin, Polander, and Thorty.

Driver, Many Chicagoans Among Those Hurt.

Moving at high speed, a South Shore electric train crashed into a Shore line bus yesterday at Chicago and Kennedy avenues. Gary, overturning the motor vehicle and seriously injuring the driver and twenty-two passengers.

The bus was dragged about seventy-five feet down the tracks by the train, before the motor WILLIAM THOMAS, man, H. Brew of Michigan City, Ind., could make his brakes work.

Charles Lesure, colored, 3541 Cottage Grove avenue, was probably fatally hurt in the accident. Her skull was fractured. She and the others injured were taken to the Gary hospital.

Other Chicagoans Injured.

Other Chicagoans on the bus, all of whom were hurt, are: Dominic Piccoli and his parents, Anthony Piccoli and Mrs. Mary Piccoli, of 747 South State street; William Wendt, 1538 Prairie avenue; Paul Engle, 202 West Roosevelt road; Joseph Bernasch, 1229 South Winchester avenue; Walter Strako, 1223 West 49th street; Cline D. Baker, 5315 Prairie avenue; Mrs. M. Slenkiewicz, 2636 Drake avenue, and Lucas Costello, 3629 Baltimore avenue.

The injured list also included the following: Austin Hughes of Gary, the bus driver; Marcel Most, 849 Adams street; Gary; John Porter, 1543 Virginia street; Gary; Elmer Cline, Hesville, Ind.; Frank Scimell, 2280 Pennsylvania street, Gary; Mrs. C. H. Lyda, and Miss Alice Lyda, 1252 Pennsylvania street, Gary; Miss Lora Adams, Hesville, and Miss Mabel Boucher, 841 Virginia street, Gary.

Obedient Signal, Driver Says.

Hughes asserted that he had waited at the railroad crossing until a signal light notified him to cross the tracks. He failed to see the approaching train, he said. Several of the passengers reported that they saw the electric cars bearing down on them, but too late to try to get out of the bus.

None of the passengers on the train was hurt. Both the electric and the bus lines are conducted by the Insull interests. The bus was Chicago bound.

One death yesterday in Cook county raised the fatality toll of automobiles since Jan. 1 to 549. Alex Spurrill, 20 years old, colored, 2023 Vernon avenue, died at German Deaconess hospital. He was hurled from the rumble seat of an automobile when the driver made a sharp turn to avoid a collision.

William Thomas, 21 years old, 318 Roger Williams avenue, Ravinia, was killed Saturday when an automobile in which he was riding crashed into a circus wagon in Evanston.

HURRICANE TOLL REACHES 19, WITH TWELVE MISSING

New Orleans, La., Aug. 29.—(AP.)—Rescuers carrying food, water, clothing, and medical supplies today threaded their way through the wreckage strewn marathons in lower Terrebonne and La Fourche parishes to the relief of victims of the tropical hurricane of last Wednesday night.

The list of known dead stood at nineteen, with more than a dozen missing. At least nine of the missing were believed to have died, including seven who were aboard the tug Patton, which sank in the Mississippi river near Convent.

SHOOTS VICTIM

BERNARD SHORG.

'BAILIFF' CAUGHT IN SHOOTING IS REVEALED CROOK

Bernard Shorg, arrested early yesterday after firing a bullet into the head of a colored man whom he ran down with his automobile at South Park way and 26th street, was identified by police last night as a well known holdup man and burglar. When he was arrested Shorg said he was a deputy bailiff of the Municipal court.

He said he shot the Negro, Walter Grayso, in self-defense after putting him into the automobile.

Efforts to locate Bernard W. Snow, chief bailiff of the Municipal court, to find out whether the man in custody is one of his deputies, were unsuccessful last night.

Shorg was held at the Pekin Inn police station, where he was taken following his arrest by a south park policeman, E. J. Schendorf. The policeman witnessed the shooting and caught Shorg and his victim at 16th street and South Park way after commandeering an auto for the chase. Schendorf said Grayso was helpless when Shorg threw him into the machine after running him down.

Shorg was held without bond. When Capt. O'Connor of the station sent out the report of the arrest the captive's record was disclosed at the bureau of identification.

Grayso was removed yesterday from Mercy hospital to the county hospital, where it was said the bullet wound in the head and his other injuries may prove fatal.

DAUGHTER FINDS MERCHANT SLAIN IN SMALL SHOP

John J. McMullin, 72 years old, was beaten to death, presumably by robbers, yesterday in a women's wear shop he owned at 119 East 51st street.

His body, with the head crushed, was discovered on the floor of the place by his daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Mollett, 5615 Emerald avenue, and her husband, late in the afternoon.

For some weeks, McMullin, who left his home at 5170 South Park avenue, had been sleeping in the rear of the store. It was known in the neighborhood that he carried a large sum of money in his pockets.

When his son-in-law and daughter, going to visit him, found the front door locked they went to the rear entrance. It was open. Peering in, they saw the old man's body. All his pockets had been turned out.

Although several witnesses reported they had seen McMullin, late in the afternoon, Coroner's Physician Joseph Springer stated after a postmortem examination that death occurred at least twelve hours before the body was found.

PAIR NABBED IN WEST IDENTIFIED AS BANDITS HERE

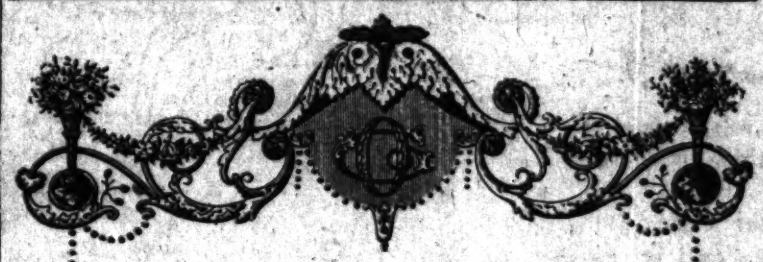

Robberies recently of a score or more of gasoline filling stations were believed by police to have been cleared up yesterday with the return to Chicago of two youths arrested in Portland, Ore.

They are Ralph Knauss, 24 years old, 109 Dupes place, Wilmette, and Albert DeVry, 22, 4809 North Clark street.

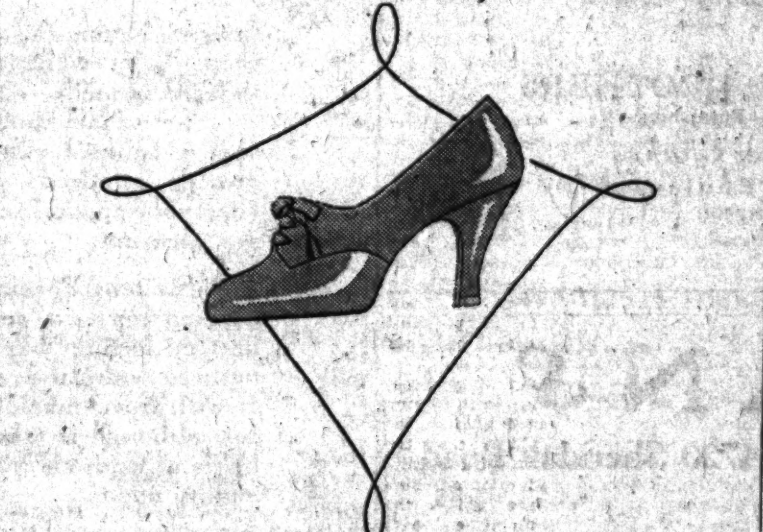

Knauss is said to be the son of a board of trade operator and DeVry, the nephew of Cy DeVry, for years in charge of the Lincoln park zoo. Capt. Patrick Gallery and Detective Sergt. Bernard Smith, of Rogers Park station, brought the pair back from Portland.

Albert Hackett, manager of a filling station at Balmoral avenue and Broadway, identified both youths yesterday as those who robbed him recently. Other victims of filling station bandits will view the pair today.

Two young girls, Mildred Johnson, 4532 North Paulina street, and Bernice Arsenau, 212 Lawrence avenue, were found with the boys in Portland, Capt. Gallery said, but they were not taken into custody.

20,000 FILE IN GOOSE STEP PAST BAVARIAN "KING"

Martial Aids, Speeches
Rouse Army Spirit.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

NUREMBERG, Germany, Aug. 29.—Bearing the lion of a marshal in his hand and clad in a glittering uniform, with Prince Oscar, son of the rival dynasty of Hohenzollern in the background, former Kaiser Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria and head of the Wittelsbach dynasty, reviewed the monarchists of Bavaria in old Nuremberg today.

Emigrants from Prussia and other parts of Germany were few, but the Bavarians turned out in full force and unparaded pageantry for the "day in honor of the dead at Sedan, Tannenberg, and Jutland" in outward triumph.

Hail "King of Bavaria."
From 11 a. m. to 2:25 p. m. thousands of monarchists filed before a tribunal erected in the old market place for Prince Rupprecht, whom they hail as the "king of Bavaria," and for Field Marshal von Mackensen and scores of other generals.

Two hundred and fifty thousand Nurembergers, Bavarians, and Sunday excursionists dressed in their best lined the old streets under swaying flags and garlands to see the monarchist procession, stirred by the blaring rhythm of brass bands.

A thousand flags and banners of all descriptions were carried in the parade by officers with their chests covered with decorations, their old fashioned uniforms shining in all hues, from light blue and white to dove gray. There were students in their high boots and salons in duck, miners in tattered coats and scalloped caps, the insignia of their guild.

Goose Step Past Princes.
In the same militaristic goose step as the officers and students, other Nurembergers and the anti-Marx workers paraded before the prince in their Sunday clothes. Colonial soldiers in their uniforms snapped by, as well as the Tyroleans and South Bavarians.

In their short chamois pants and bare knees, with green coats and feathered hats.

There were many boys in these groups who never heard a shot fired in anger, but they were coldblooded when, in the coffee houses and restaurants, they told veterans of four years of the world war what they intended to do to France as soon as they are given an opportunity.

In a huge group on the outskirts of town 20,000 paraders assembled to listen to the words of "King" Rupprecht, who reminded them of their "duty to the fatherland," urging them to bring up their children in the spirit of sacrifice and duty.

Cheer Old Army Spirit.
Field Marshal von Mackensen, who made an impressive figure in his hussar uniform with the famous death's head, was loudly cheered when he told the masses that he had come to greet them for the Kaiser in Doorn and appealed to them not to let the old army spirit die out.

Prince Oscar of Hohenzollern, despite the solemn promises given to the German government by all the Hohenzollern princes that they would abstain from political meetings and festivities, mounted the rostrum to convey greetings from his brothers to the Bavarian monarchists.

CATHOLICS FILL CHURCHES; PUSH MEXICAN FIGHT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Mexico City, Aug. 28.—The Catholic churches of Mexico City and suburbs were crowded today, the fifth Sunday of the suspension of worship. Women of leading families distributed circulars urging the Catholics to maintain the economic boycott, attend church regularly, and use every means to induce other Catholics to stand by the orders of the pope and Mexican episcopate.

While feeling is becoming more normal in the capital, reports from the interior say it is becoming more intense in the smaller towns and villages. In several villages the Indians have forced the representatives of the municipal governments out and have taken possession of the churches, in which Indian priests are officiating.
The groundwork is being laid for a campaign which the Catholics will undertake this week to force congress to consider the petition to reform the anti-Catholic laws.

NEW ERA HAILED BY THEOSOPHISTS IN TEMPLE RITE

Holy Man and Dr. Besant Caught in Auto Jam.

By GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK

(Picture on back page.) All yesterday morning the American Theosophists, gathered together at the Hotel Sherman for their 40th annual convention, with prayers and discourses, laid down the spiritual corner stone of their faith.

All afternoon, with mortar and square and plumb line, Dr. Annie Besant, their international president, laid the physical corner stone of their $100,000 temple, while 3000 of her followers scrambled about over the clay hills and down the sandy excavations at Wheaton, the better to view the 79 year old woman in the white robes and red hat.

Caught in Auto Jam.

Yidu Krishnamurti, the young Brahman heralded as the modern messenger of divinity on earth, during the dedication services remained in the tower of the big gray limousine, owned by George F. Porter, which had carried him and Dr. Besant to Wheaton.

On the way out the car, caught in the jam of Sunday traffic, narrowly escaped a serious smashup. As it was, it arrived at Wheaton with a long dent in the right side of the body. Krishnamurti, Dr. Besant, Yolanda de Manjari (sister of Mrs. Porter) and two other women, who rode in the car, had been shaken up but were uninjured.

As the temple dedication ritual ended Dr. Besant, with the strands of her very white bobbed hair blown over the cap, stood, silhouetted, a white figure against a background of clay embankment, waving out her right hand, with its gauntlet of white silk and gold braid, and pronounced the corner stone, with its bronze box of treasures, properly laid. Irving K. Pond, the architect, received his charge in concluding the work.

"A New Human Era." Then the 79 year old lady, who has been called one of England's best orators, lifted her voice slightly and sent out her message which carried clear across the banks and prairies, over to where the motor cars were parked. "We are now entering upon a new period in human evolution," Dr. Besant declared.

"Today, and for many centuries to come, the great and dominant ray of the great architect of the universe is the ray of beauty. Human life will be filled with outward beauty as well as inward power.

"The universe is orderly, and one kind of influence succeeds another in due procession. Now is coming the ray of beauty. Let us not spoil the beauty of nature and make ugly what divine hands have made beautiful. Let us, rather, restore the beauty that has been destroyed."

Esoteric Society Meets.

The convention formally opened yesterday morning at 3 o'clock with a closed meeting of the Esoteric society, the inner circle of the Theosophical society.

At this meeting Krishnamurti stressed the value of beauty, pleaded for world brotherhood, and predicted that both beauty and peace would hasten the coming of the Christ.

Dr. Besant urged her followers to be "equally serene to pain and to pleasure, to joy and to sorrow." "I have said nothing yet," Dr. Besant went on, "of the curse of the American newspaper, but I will now say this: They have misquoted me by saying that the world teacher will be limited by assuming an earthly nature. Not at all. Fragments of him appear from time to time. His consciousness is world-pervading and cannot be limited."

"Christ Within Each Soul."

The Englishwoman sounded this same note several hours later when she delivered the sermon at a service of the Liberal Catholic church, held at the Hotel Sherman.

"In Krishnamurti," she said, "he will find a fragment of his body." "If we desire to recognize Christ when he comes to walk our streets it will be as we have built up inside the Christ spirit that reproduces a share of His love."

MOODY, VICTOR, SAYS TEXAS HAS QUIT FERGUSON

Defeated Rival Thinks "Still Young."

Austin, Texas, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Jim Ferguson's career in Texas politics has ended, Attorney General Dan Moody, red haired Democratic gubernatorial nominee, declared today.

But James E. Ferguson, former governor, husband of Gov. Miriam Ferguson, and a dominant figure in state politics since 1914, said: "I don't wish to take from Moody any of the sweets of victory, but twelve years' experience in politics has taught me that when one is young one is inclined to exaggerate the effects of an accomplishment. Understand, however, I am not seeking to minimize Moody's triumph." These statements were made as the Texas election bureau was winding up the count of ballots in yesterday's runoff primary, in which Moody defeated Mrs. Ferguson. When 245 counties of the 253 in the state had reported, 100 complete, the figures were: Moody, 469,152; Mrs. Ferguson, 247,100. Mr. Moody said he thought it was impossible to gauge the strength of the Texas Ku Klux Klan by the election results. "The Klan was not an issue and Ferguson found it impossible to make it one," said the man who, as district attorney of Williamson county, sent five alleged Klan leaders to the penitentiary.

Ferguson spoke philosophically of the reverse of his wife. Asked how Mrs. Ferguson was bearing her defeat, her husband replied: "My wife is a good sport."

MADRID, Aug. 29.—Abd-el Krim, the fallen Rifian chieftain, goes into exile not only a broken man but a poor one. The Spanish government has announced that all of the Emir's lands, cattle, and goods have been confiscated. Goods which were seized by Krim will be returned to the owners, when such can be determined, and the rest will be appropriated by the government. (Krim was just aboard ship at Casablanca on Friday to start for his exile home on Reunion island in the Indian ocean.)

HARD OR SOFT BOILED ARMY? UP TO COOLIDGE

Next Chief of Staff to Be Selected Soon.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Aug. 29.—(Special.)—Is the hardboiled disciplinarian the ideal officer type in the American army?

MAJ. GEN. CHARLES F. SUMMERALL.
The army hardboiled, softboiled or just plain medium.

Selected Over Summerall's Head.

The President, they say, must indicate whether he wants the type of man in the office of the chief of staff who gets his results with a hammer or one who uses less harsh methods. When Gen. Pershing, in 1922, recommended Maj. Gen. Hines to the post over the head of Maj. Gen. Charles F. Summerall, senior ranking officer in the army and reputed to be its strictest disciplinarian, the opinion spread abroad that the high command did not like its officers too hardboiled.

With a new chief to be selected before December, the army is greatly interested in finding out whether Gen. Summerall will be passed over again by the administration, and if so, what officer will be selected in his place.

Would Be Happier Under Ely.
At this time the army believes it is a question of Gen. Summerall against the field, with Maj. Gen. Hanson E. Ely, commandant of the army war college, a brilliant leader of troops, as his principal opponent for the post. Impulsive, bluff spoken, tremendously active, a go-getter, but without the reputation of being as hardboiled as Summerall, Gen. Ely, in the opinion of many army officers, would make a fine chief of staff. As one officer expressed it, "the army would probably be happier under Ely than under Summerall."

Among the other candidates whose names are considered are Maj. Gen. William L. Lester, an army diplomat, who has been assigned to the Sixth corps with headquarters at Chicago; Maj. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, youngest major general of them all and a popular and influential officer, and Maj. Gen. Fox Conner, the present deputy chief of staff.

"Honest John" Summerall.
If you ask any army man, he is of fier or private, to describe Gen. Summerall he will reply with a flood of adjectives. "Jovial, hard bodied, dominant, dynamic, stern disciplinarian, powerful, martinet, exacting, extraordinary, indefatigable, decisive," are just a few of the words that have been used in describing the man who has been variously known as "Honest John" Summerall, "Per Schedule" Summerall, and the "Oliver Cromwell of the American army."

Gen. Summerall at present is commanding officer of the Second corps, with headquarters in New York City. During the war he served successively as regimental commander, brigade commander, division commander, and corps commander. In every one of these positions he was credited with remarkable success.

America's entrance into the war found him a colonel. He went to France as a brigadier general in command of the 57th field artillery brigade of the forty-second division. Late in 1917 he went to the first division as commander of the artillery brigade, where he was praised for his work at Cantigny, and later as division commander. With that division he did most of his fighting.

In Four Major Offensives.
The battles which mark the stepping stones in his brilliant advance to the position of commander of the fifth corps were successively Cantigny, Soissons, St. Mihiel, and the Argonne. In the closing weeks of the war he led the fifth corps in the great offensive which preceded the armistice. Officers who knew him well say that he was idolized by officers and men alike before the end of the war. In explaining Summerall those who know him say that he is not so hard bodied as his reputation. They describe him as a very dominant character, a tremendous worker, and a man of exceptionally high principles.

EYES OF EUROPE ON MUSSOLINI IN BALKAN TANGLE

Roumania Seeks Italy's
O. K. on Bessarabia Pact

BY FLOYD GIBBONS.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)
BUCHAREST, Roumania, Aug. 27.—(Delayed.)—The eyes of Moscow and Bucharest will be trained on Rome this coming week, when Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy and Premier Averescu of Roumania open negotiations upon whose outcome will depend the future peace of southeastern Europe. England and France also are awaiting the outcome, because Italian diplomacy has been maneuvered so successfully that the power rests with Signor Mussolini today to make or break the conventions built up in the last five years and ratified by the French and British parliaments.

The question at stake is the sovereignty of Bessarabia and the integrity of the Roumanian-Russian frontier along the Dniester.

Armies Face Each Other.

The Roumanian and bolshevik armies face one another today along the opposing banks of the Dniester river as they have done since Oct. 28, 1920, when England, France, Italy, Japan, and Roumania signed a treaty at Paris recognizing the Roumanian sovereignty over the old Russian territory of Bessarabia.

England and France ratified the treaty with the specification that it would not come into force until ratified by at least three of the principal allied powers. Japan early indicated its lack of interest by stating that it would only ratify after the third ratification. Thus the power of validating or invalidating the treaty rests with Premier Mussolini.

Roumania asks that the Italian dictator ratify the pact, while Moscow, now in relations with Rome, refuses to recognize Roumania's occupation of Bessarabia and holds that the Italian ratification of the treaty would be accepted as an unfriendly act to Russia. The question assumes additional importance at present, in view of the Russian internal situation, which is believed to be serious enough to make the present Moscow government welcome the possibility of a foreign diversion.

It is up to Premier Mussolini. Italy's

BALKAN SORE SPOT

The map shows Bessarabia, the territory ceded to Roumania from Russia by a treaty signed by allied powers. Only Britain and France have ratified the treaty so far, and as a third power must ratify it, Roumania is now dictating for Italy's approval of the pact.

fast developing policy of commercial expansion in the Balkans and southeastern Europe enter into the question. Oil and grain are two commodities which Italy needs and which both Roumania and Russia have to offer. The contending parties also offer markets for the products of Italian industries. In these material respects Russia has more to offer to offset the ancient ties of blood and language existing between Italy and Roumania.

gives rise to the belief that Premier

New Treaty Deal Seen.

Italy wants both markets and this

Mussolini will avoid a settlement of the Bessarabian question, leaving it open for the future.

If Premier Averescu fails to obtain a ratification of the old treaty, it is believed he will endeavor to negotiate a treaty of amity with Italy of the same nature as the concluded two weeks ago with France, with the exception that Italy, while guaranteeing the integrity of Roumania's frontiers, will not specify that the frontiers include Bessarabia. In this manner Italy would avoid offending Russia, while to Roumanians will be left the connection point of interpreting its frontiers to include the disputed province.

Of prime interest to Europe and the rest of the world is the fact that such an outcome will leave the question unsettled and will leave two opposing armies facing one another along hundre's miles of disputed frontier. Bessarabia will remain a potential cause of war between Roumania and Russia until the question is settled.

"The sovereignty of Bessarabia is not a question for discussion between Roumania and Russia," Foreign Minister Titulescu of Roumania told me today. "In 1922, at the conference at Genoa, Roumania offered to sign a pact of non-aggression with Russia, but Moscow refused to answer this offer."

Pending the negotiations in Rome and the expected outcome, with the Serbians there is renewed talk of a Roumanian offer of a ten year non-aggression pact with Russia, amounting to a virtual truce along the Dniester.

UNIFIED CONTROL URGED FOR ALL PENSION FUNDS

Unified control of all Chicago's public pension funds is urged by H. L. Bell, actuarial adviser, in his report sent to Mayor Dwyer's pension commission yesterday. The report also advises the merger of two funds with one of the stronger pension systems.

The report will be used as a basis for the commission's recommendations to the council and the mayor, by whom it was appointed. It was compiled with the aid of George Silas, the commission's secretary.

There has been agitation in favor of a complete merger of all public pension funds, which include those of the municipal employees, city and park police, firemen, teachers, House of Correction, public library, and others. The proposal of Mr. Bell is seen as a significant step in that direction. The eventual aim, he points out, is to simplify the entire pension scheme.

Among other recommendations are: Prompt annual reports of the funds showing deficits. Some of the reports are now several years overdue.

Further study should be made of the appropriateness of 75 per cent of the highest salary as the upper limit for a policeman's pension and 60 per cent for his widow.

When a deficit occurs in a fund the premiums of employees and tax contributions should be increased as to wipe out the deficit the following year.

Danger in Police Suit.

The firemen's and teachers' funds should be put on a reserve and allocation basis for accumulation of funds.

Tax support of these funds should not be increased until this is done. Referring to the attempt now being made through the courts to drop the $2,500 limit as a salary basis upon which police pensions are paid, the report warns that the success would greatly increase the fund's liabilities and consequent demands upon the taxpayers.

Action on the Bell report will probably be taken at the next meeting of the pension commission, tentatively set for the middle of September.

Ald. Arthur F. Albert is chairman of the commission. Its other members are Ald. George Maypole, Ald. A. J. Hanna, Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins, Fire Commissioner Joseph F. Connery, Augustus F. Peabody, Carl Latham, Daniel V. Harkin, William Neer, John P. Dillon, and Jens C. Hansen.

POSSES CAPTURE 5 MORE ESCAPED IONIA CONVICTS

IONIA, Mich., Aug. 29.—Four more convicts who escaped from the state reformatory here yesterday were captured today, one of them after a pistol battle, near a swamp between Marshall and Albion, Mich., where they had fled after a posse intercepted their automobile.

John Oberhaus of St. Louis was shot and seriously wounded by a posseman. John Paquin surrendered without resistance. A third convict was captured when attempting to flee with his companions into the swamp. With one man, Herbert Tager, captured at Kalamazoo today, and six apprehended yesterday, only fifteen are yet at large.

LAY BOMBING OF TWO HOMES TO TEXTILE STRIKE

CLIFTON, N. J., Aug. 29.—Two homes were bombed here today. Police attributed both to the textile mill strike, which has been in effect for eight months.

The home of Mrs. Ellen McNally was damaged by a bomb, made of dynamite placed in an iron pipe. The pipe was thrown on to the porch. Pieces were blown through the house, part of the

Wanted A Sales Manager for Industrial Equipment Manufacturer

The field is as broad as industry itself. The market, almost without limit. The manufacturer provides a service (of which the equipment is a part), that greatly speeds up production and saves millions of dollars in time and hand labor.

This manufacturer, established 50 years, leader in all branches of his business, developed this vehicle of service for speed in production and for lower handling costs. The art is developed, but its appreciation by industry just beginning.

The job requires not so much individual salesmanship as experience and ability to plan for, direct and inspire. Eighteen district sales managers; select, educate and train salesmen to sell a service rather than products.

Knowledge of, experience with, or appreciation of production methods and problems of industry is essential. The man wanted is old enough to be seasoned in judgment and to have demonstrated his capacity by accomplishment. Yet he is young enough to be flexible in his thinking.

Compensation is offered in the form of ample salary and bonus. Opportunity for increased income is assured as soon as quality of leadership, inspired sales and smooth, effective sales organization are demonstrated.

Please answer this only if you can prove that you measure up to the requirements as outlined. Send us detailed history of your business life with all the facts and comments that you would seek if you were trying to locate a man for this job.

Applications will be held in strictest confidence. No references will be written without your consent. Address A. S. Cotins.

Panatrope demonstrations front-page space. Critics and laymen alike proclaimed it the greatest musical achievement of the age.

Now a second achievement

The new Brunswick instrument is a second achievement of equal importance with the Panatrope. For it brings the magic of "music by photography" within the reach of everyone. We urge you to hear this instrument. It is futile for us to attempt to describe its music. We can only say that nothing in musical reproduction, except the Panatrope, surpasses the naturalness of tone which distinguishes this newest Brunswick achievement. The only way to realize this is to hear it.

Hear it, then name it

We want a name and advertising slogan for this new instrument. A name and a slogan that suggest the naturalness, the photographic quality, of music of the newest Brunswick invention. Hearing this instrument may suggest these to you. We will gladly pay $5,000 for the best suggestions sent us. Read our offer. Any Brunswick dealer will play the new Brunswick for you, without obligation. Hear it, then write down your suggestions, put them in the special box he has for the purpose, or mail them direct to us.

Free booklet, gives all details

To help you, we have prepared a booklet which describes the new Brunswick musical instrument and which states in detail the facts about the Brunswick Prize Offer. It is not necessary to have this booklet in order to compete, for all vital information is presented here, but this booklet may help you immensely. Ask your Brunswick dealer for a copy. $5000 for a Name!

BRUNSWICK'S GREAT PRIZE OFFER

We waited two years before announcing this instrument...there is no other like it...it reflects the latest developments in sound reproduction and acoustics...and contains in addition even more important discoveries of our own

THE past few years have seen stupendous advances in the art of music reproduction. To radio belongs the credit for a large share of these.

We have applied the new discoveries to a new reproducing musical instrument. For two years we have worked to perfect this instrument.

Today it is finished. We offer it to you, knowing it is perfect. How can it be otherwise—every important acoustical development has been accepted, or rejected, in its making!

Reveals beauty of new recording
The new Brunswick instrument reproduces the music of the new electrical records. As inventors of the "Light-Ray" electrical recording process (music by photography) we are pre-eminently interested in developing instruments which give these records perfect reproduction.

The instrument that amazed the critics

Already we have achieved one sensational success in reproduction. In co-operation with the Radio Corporation of America, General Electric Company and the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company, we perfected the Brunswick Panatrope, the world's first purely electrical reproducing musical instrument.

This is the instrument which held a New York concert hall audience enthralled with its music. The first time a machine ever successfully replaced human performers. The great metropolitan newspapers accorded the first

MINISTER CALLS FASCISTI CLOUD OVER AMERICA

But Finds Silver Lining in Present Situation.

Minister presents a dark cloud, but with a silver lining, according to the Rev. H. Lee McLeod, pastor of the First Baptist church, Central, who preached last evening in the church. "What is the greatest need of America today?"

Among the factors which make up the dark cloud the minister named: opposition to the democratic ideas of the United States; the presence in the United States of 15,000 Fascists; the grooves of the mind which teach in schools, "rob, rape and kill"; the thousands of gangs among the boys and girls of Chicago and other big cities who operate in the alleys and on the street front and plan illicit love affairs and all forms of evil.

Crime Wave Is Factor. The crime wave, lawlessness, the increasing love of thrills, the falling off of missionary gifts on the part of practically all the denominations and lack of church attendance, were other factors in producing the black cloud.

"Ministers and college professors who take the Bible to pieces, pretending to believe some parts and reject others," he said, "to the blackness of the cloud and give others an excuse for withholding their own pleasures on the ground that there is no longer any authority in religion."

The silver lining to the cloud he described by quoting several promises of the Bible which indicate a final triumph of righteousness and also the hope on the part of many leaders that we were about to experience a new awakening such as Luther had in the 16th century, the Puritans in the 17th, the Wesleyans in the 18th, and the Holiness and Moody in the 19th century.

Denounces Fascists in U. S. The minister quoted R. W. Babson, the Wall Street Journal, Tuesday cartoon by John T. McCutcheon, President Coolidge and others to prove the corrective of the prevailing crime, graft, and political corruption was "a good, old-fashioned, God-sent, Holy Spirit-directed revival of religion." This last expression, he said, "expresses what I consider the greatest need of the present time." He asked a pledge from the audience to pray and work for this end and said he would like no occupation better than to go up and down the country proclaiming his doctrine.

In denouncing the Black Shirts he declared their action at the side of the leader of Valentino in New York was a scandal.

"What business did they have there?" he exclaimed. "What business have Reds, bolsheviks and anarchists in America to pull down our flags of order and liberty? I believe any citizen who refuses to become a naturalized citizen of the United States ought to be deported."

NAB 8 AS AUTO THEFT GANG; 45 CARS RECOVERED

Seven men and a woman, said by police to be members of a gang of automobile thieves that has been operating in Chicago and nearby towns for the last nine months, were captured yesterday by Acting Lieut. Roy Hassler and his squad. Forty-five cars, alleged to have been stolen by the gang and stripped of accessories, were recovered.

The woman, Helen Johnson, 37 years old, who said she is a nurse, and William Ullock, 31, chauffeur for the Diamond Cab company, were arrested in a room at 1954 Milwaukee avenue. The others were caught in a poolroom at 3912 North Cicero avenue, reported to be the gang's headquarters. The proprietor of the place, Anasta Yaramanis, a Greek, was arrested.

The others in custody are Carl Dimberg, 18 years old, 4448 Cuyler avenue; Alex Dora, 20, 4747 Grace street; Ernest Walter, 19, 3123 Waveland avenue; Harry Klein, 19, 4947 Cornell avenue; and Larry Lester, 47, proprietor of a second hand automobile shop at 2148 Prairie avenue, said to be a fence for the gang.

News Notes of Interest to The College Girl and Her Younger Sister

MILLINERY depicts the mood of Paris in Velvet, Velour, Felt, or Satin. Broad Brims for Young Charm to wear at sorority teas; snug-fitting Turbans and Tams for breezy Fall days on the campus; brief Ripple Brims for the football season, and travel. Gold trimming is much in evidence.

FROCKS for classroom and dormitory may be of Wool Crepe, one of Autumn's foremost fabrics. Also of Printed Velveteen, Crepe Satin, Kashmir-toile, or Canton. For dinners and dancing, Chiffon, Tulle, and Velvet from heavy to transparent "ring" weight, are fashionable. The new blouse back and skirt fullness-in-front appear often.

SPORTS WEAR promotes Russian Green combined with a lighter green shade; also Brown Tones ranging all the way from Tete de Negre to the vivid orange and yellow Nasturtium hues. Chanel's new "Cardigan Costume" is becoming and practical in either Crepe or very fine Jersey. This direct descendant of Lord Cardigan's waistcoat is decidedly collegiate. Wool Crepe, Cord de Laine Franks, and Knitted Fabrics interpret the new two-piece sports dresses. Leather Jackets and Knitted Sweaters of every style imaginable are intriguing in their gay weaves and colors.

COATS for campus, sports, and travel remain simple and slim. The new Novelty Tweeds and Mixtures are exceptionally fine of weave; many of them are combined with fluffy furs. Shawl collars, bloused backs, and dolman sleeves are some of the season's new notes in misses' coats for dressier occasions.

FURS exploit inexpensive Natural Calf and Hairsil for young women, this season. The new Fur-and-Fabric coats, reversible, are a fur coat, a cloth coat—all in one. Smart worn either way, they are decidedly accepted by Parisian debutantes.

YOUNGER GIRLS' APPAREL for Fall is an adaptation throughout of the smart modes for Older Sisters, created in the self-same new colors and fabrics, at Stevens.

At least one frock of Velvet should be selected for Mademoiselle's back-to-school wardrobe.

Food for Thought for Food Advertisers

WHERE did that antiquated tradition that women prefer the evening newspaper, ever gain credence. It belongs to days gone by. The times have changed. There has been a marked swing toward morning newspapers.

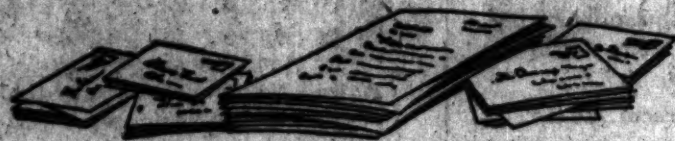

The radio, the movie, the automobile, and dining out are absorbing the women's interest in the evening. On the other hand, the kitchen cabinet, the washing machine, the vacuum cleaner and a score of other labor saving devices are freeing her mornings for reading.

How important the change was to food advertisers The Tribune did not realize until the facts were compiled. They form a story as impressive as has ever been presented to any branch of industry concerning the value of any advertising medium.

On The Tribune staff, thirty women edit and write for the women, the food buyers.

They have been successful. Of 642,529 replies received last year to thirty features, 270,453 were to seven features addressed primarily to women. Notice that 152,633 times women sent ten cents to The Tribune for Clotilde Patterns alone.

Tribune Features	Letters received in 1925
Embarrassing Moments	10,571
Sally Joy Brown	33,526
Antoinette Donnelly	18,591
Clotilde Patterns	152,633
Doris Blake (Beauty)	8,518
Mae Timee (Movies)	2,846
Bright Sayings	42,526

A manufacturer selling house to house wanted to get the facts. His salesmen asked 4000 housewives what Chicago newspaper they preferred.

1640 or 41% said The Tribune. 1096 mentioned the next newspaper and 692 the third.

An electrical appliance survey was made by phone. The calls were divided equally among all telephone exchanges. Of the 2522 women reached, 76% or 1956 read The Tribune, 18% more than the next highest newspaper, 46% more than the third.

A large food manufacturer placed the identical page advertisement, carrying a coupon, in four Chicago newspapers. 3967 coupons were returned from The Tribune, almost twice as many as from the second newspaper, nearly three times more than from the third, and six times the fourth.

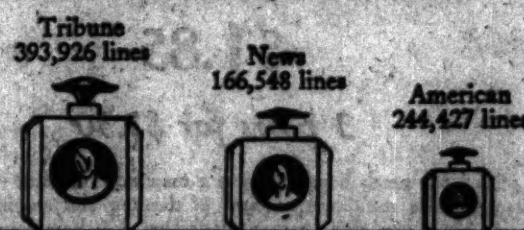

Ring door bells, telephone, or check coupons, the answer is the same—Chicago women prefer The Tribune.

That this is fact and not theory is being proved again and again by advertisers who spend their money to reach Chicago women.

Charles A. Stevens, the world's largest store catering exclusively to women used, in 1925, more lines of advertising in the daily issues of The Tribune than in all other Chicago newspapers combined; and in the daily and Sunday Tribune two and one half times as many lines as in all the rest.

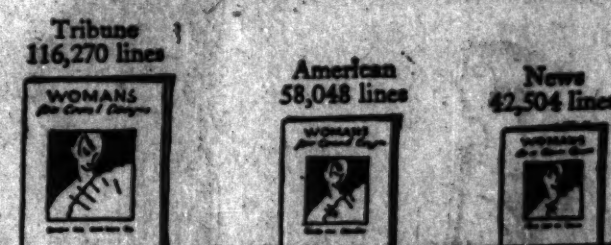

Here is the way advertisers of toilet preparations invested their money last year:

Toilet Preparations, 1925

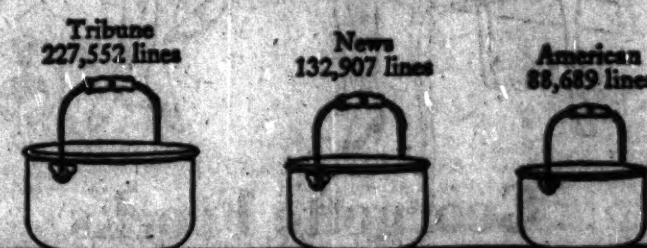

Publishers of magazines appealing exclusively to women confirm this choice with their advertising dollars.

Women's Publications, 1925

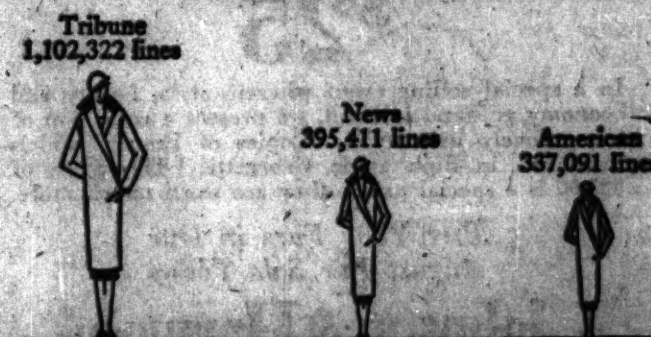

Household utilities manufacturers pile up the evidence.

Household Utilities, 1925

And again from advertisers of women's apparel.

Women's Clothing, 1925

Chicago drug stores reach Chicago women this way:

Drug Stores, 1925

Food advertisers cannot disregard facts of such wealth and weight. They are following the women. They are choosing The Tribune.

Only the high spots of the complete story have been touched in this advertisement. Certainly, Mr. Food Advertiser, you will want to hear it all—a Chicago Tribune man will gladly answer your request and give it to you.

DAVID ON STUMP SAYS DRY LAW KILLS FREEDOM

Judge Tells of Judicial Chaos in Prohibition.

John Joseph B. David took the stump before about 400 members of the Dry club in Washington park yesterday and for nearly two hours discussed his eloquence against the eighth amendment. He termed the Volstead act un-American, denounced prohibition as a failure and declared it a menace to constitutional liberty.

"It is the only part of the constitution which restricts personal liberty," he declared. "It cannot be enforced, it should not be enforced, and it will be repealed."

"A Cause of Chaos." Prohibition has created chaos in law courts throughout the country, he said. The judge warned that as long as the eighth amendment gives congress power to regard as contraband that which was recognized as property and used by the government, there is no hope for such thing as the "rights of private property."

"Man made laws do not wear halos," he remarked. "A provision which in itself causes the annihilation of several other provisions of the constitution should itself be annihilated. It is our duty to abolish this amendment which interferes with our peace, our rights, and our happiness."

Calls Prohibition "Bunk." "Inventive wine and physicians' prescriptions he called 'the bunk' because they supply a certain class with liquor while another class must go without. 'I want no man to have a chance for a drink unless every man does,' he said.

Twenty-nine per cent of the American people are sober, industrious, and law abiding, but if the question of prohibition were submitted by referendum a popular vote it would be repealed by a vote of 3 to 1, he said.

Mother Slain by Prowler;

Girl, 6, Names Suspect

Joseph Cibello, of 222 Cambridge street, was arrested by the Chicago police last night after a 6 year old girl reported that her mother, who was shot as she stood at a window of her home at 853 La Grange, whispered to her lay dying that he was the slayer. The woman, who lived only a few minutes after she had been fired at with a shotgun, was Mary Brady, 44 years old. Cibello denied knowing anything about the shooting.

RELATIVES KEEPING VIGIL OVER BODY OF JOHN RODGERS, HERO

Havre de Grace, Md., Aug. 19.—(AP)—Commander John Rodgers was home today. The hero of nine days of drifting on the breast of the Pacific ocean in a cockleshell of a seaplane during the San Francisco-Hawaii flight last year, who was killed in the fall of a land type plane at Philadelphia Friday, was for the last time among the peaceful surroundings of Zion Hill, home to a long line of illustrious "John Rodgers" for a hundred years.

Sorrowing relatives kept vigil throughout the Sabbath over the star draped casket, heaped with flowers. Services tomorrow will be at 3:30 p. m., with only the family and a few of the commander's closest friends in attendance. The body will be accorded burial with full honors in Arlington National cemetery at 3 p. m. on Tuesday.

$50,000 ALCOHOL DISAPPEARANCE STARTS INQUIRY

Rockford, Ill., Aug. 19.—(AP)—James Watson, federal prohibition agent from Chicago, is here to investigate the mysterious disappearance of $50,000 worth of alcohol from the old Graham distillery warehouse of the Chicago Grain Products company.

The alcohol is said to have been stolen from the old distillery, where it was stored as government property the first part of August. The supposed robbery followed the removal from the same warehouse in July of 100 barrels of aged pre-war whiskey. This earlier shipment from Rockford was supposed to have been ordered by officials of the Chicago Grain Products company upon direction of federal prohibition headquarters and the bonded whiskey sent to a government concentration warehouse at Philadelphia. However, it has been discovered that the whiskey never arrived there.

A peculiar incident connected with both liquor disappearances was the temporary removal of an experienced watchman at the scene of the old Graham distillery just before each of the two removals.

CHICAGO LACKS NEW PARK LAND, REPORT REVEALS

Assembly Fails to Enact Needed Legislation.

Restricted by lack of state legislation, Chicago is among the cities that are not keeping pace with the movement to secure future recreational facilities by requiring that land be set aside in new subdivisions for parks and playgrounds.

Although such provisions are strongly recommended by city planners, nothing has been accomplished locally, according to a report issued yesterday by Frederick Rex, municipal reference librarian, who has communicated with ten other large cities on the subject.

Inquiry Ordered by Council.

The report was completed at the request of Ald. Jacob M. Arvey (24th), chairman of the council committee on judiciary. A council resolution last December directed the judiciary committee to investigate the plan. Of the ten cities asked for information, three have definite laws requiring the preservation of play areas in new annexations while others are studying the proposal. In several states enabling legislation has been passed and in others killed by lobbies of real estate operators. Mr. Rex's investigation shows.

In December, 1918, the report recalls the Chicago council recommended for enactment by the legislature a bill providing that in all subdivisions of ten acres or more not less than one-tenth of the area be dedicated to parks and playgrounds. The law would have applied to the territory within five miles of any city of 100,000 or more population.

Bills Die in Legislature.

The bill was referred to the legislature's committee on municipalities and ordered tabled on June 12, 1917. Another bill, requiring the setting aside of one-twentieth of subdivisions, met the same fate. Since then no further efforts to pass laws have been made.

Chief among the cities enforcing the park regulation are Akron, O.; St. Paul, Minn.; and Kenosha, Wis. Subdivision developers are required either to set aside adequate plots for parks or pay the equivalent of their cost to the city.

A leader in mango promotion gives precedence among the great number of varieties to the Haden and the Mul-das and says: "To the connoisseur, these two varieties combine all the delicious flavors and aromas of the peach, apple, pear, cantaloupe, and pineapple, and, in addition, a delightfully spicy flavor all their own."

MILLING DEMAND STEADIES WHEAT; CORN IMPROVES

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Wheat values held well the last two days on the face of one of the heaviest marketing movements of winter wheat in years. This was due to an increasing milling demand with heavy buying of flour and a moderate export business.

A factor confounding the trade is the movement of spring wheat in the American and Canadian northwest, which is getting under way. The trade is uncertain as to the size of the movement and how it will be taken. It will be surprising should millers and foreign buyers absorb the spring wheat readily.

The impression prevails that the greater part of the milling trade has been filled up with winter wheat and that the demand for spring varieties from the northwest will not be so keen. There is also the same uncertainty in the Canadian trade, where millers have to depend on spring wheat.

Decline of Around 1 Cent.

There has been a decline of around 1 cent in two weeks, and the size of the spring wheat marketing is dependent upon weather conditions in the United States; while in Canada, where most operations are a big factor, there may not be the same pressure as in the United States market. Whether the leading producers of winter and spring wheat intend to depress prices is puzzling the trade, and the impression among many of the leaders is that the trend of values has been irregularly lower despite the fact that prices are close to the lowest of the season.

In the world's wheat situation there are larger supplies in the United States and Canada than a year ago, a moderate harvest by 100,000,000 to 200,000,000 bushels in Europe from last year, with lighter stocks, and a big decrease in the 1926 crop, which is one of the most important bread grains in Europe. But the northern hemisphere has more wheat than last year.

The important factor that generally determines prices around Jan. 1 is the outcome of the Argentine and Australian crops, which have at present had a favorable start. Should they be seriously damaged, it is believed that the whole world wheat situation would be materially strengthened and prices advanced, depending largely upon the volume of speculative buying and the way foreigner take cash wheat in various positions.

September Liquidation On.

Heavy liquidation has been on by September holders, and the larger shorts were completed in turning over their September interests into December at the close of the week, while the short interest in deferred futures was increased.
